CLIMBER 2017

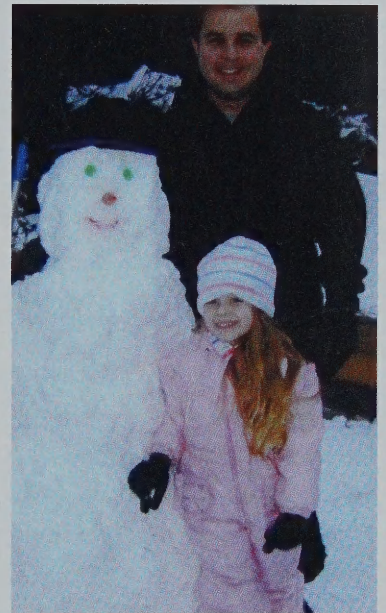

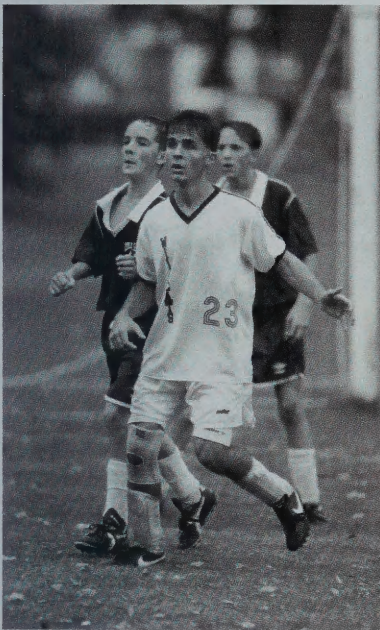

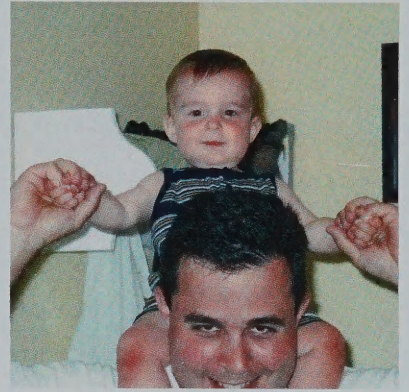

Class of 2017 Yearbook Dedication

Every year, the senior class chooses a teacher to dedicate the yearbook to. They look for someone that everyone has a connection with, someone who goes above and beyond the job of just teaching their students a certain subject. Someone who is passionate about their job, and despite their workload, sets it aside to help their students.

This year, the Class of 2017 chooses someone who fulfills all of these qualities and more. Some of us have been lucky enough to have him as a coach or as our power block teacher since freshman year. Many others have had classes with him throughout high school. Everyone has witnessed his dedication to WB academics and athletics. This teacher has positively influenced the lives of just about every student in our class, and built personal connections with all of us. From teaching us to love a subject that most students hate, to writing just about our whole class college recommendation letters, he has put teaching as one of his top priorities. No matter how much work he has to do, or how little time he has to spare, he always makes time to help his students. This person genuinely enjoys teaching and assisting students to excel and flourish in not only their work, but in life as well. He goes above and beyond his job and positively impacts each and every one of his student's lives in a way that we will never forget.

Mr. Jeremy Winchell.

To the WBMSHS Staff

John F. Kennedy once said, "as we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them". The class of 2017 cannot begin to put into words how grateful we are for everything the staff and faculty here at West Bridgewater Middle-Senior High School have done, and continue to do, for us. At times it may seem that we take for granted all the help, kindness and guidance we receive but we promise that your actions have not gone unnoticed. We appreciate all the meals the lunch ladies prepare for us every day. We appreciate how hard the maintenance team works to keep the school clean and want to send a quick apology for always leaving the senior cafe dirty. We appreciate all the lessons our teachers have taught us, and how much time and effort they put into making our education the best it can be. Although we never say it, we appreciate everything this school has done for us to make our time here the best it could have been. There is no way we can ever begin to express our respect and admiration towards this school's staff but we hope through this letter our gratitude can begin to be seen. Thank you.

Sincerely,

The Class of 2017

"Percentage wise, it is 100% easier not to do things than to do them, and so much fun not to do them—especially when you were supposed to do them."

There is one person we all know who should be included in this and his name is MA. Throughout high school I had a lot of help from some great people. Some of these people are KM, JC, BS, ME(those are initials not me being egotistical) and especially NK. Teachers like Rosow and Finley have been very helpful and understanding through these past few years.

"When the power of love is greater than the love of power then the world will know peace." -Jimi Hendrix

High school was a great experience for me. I had some amazing classes with equally amazing teachers. I had some great experiences in both the old building and new. Mr. Winchell's power block was the greatest. I will always remember him talking about politics, soccer and StarWars. I could go on talking and thanking all my teachers but, we only 650 characters to write this. My friends were also a great part of my high school experience. JF, DB, MA, BS, JG and of course LN. They made Highschool tolerable. I would also like to thank my Mom and Dad for being there to support me through these four years.

"It seems like only yesterday we would sit and talk of dreams all night, dreams of youth and simple truths, but now we're all so involved; so involved with life." - Neil Peart

I will always remember WB, Wildcats. From 2nd grade when I saw the sign on the school and realized we were the same as high school musical.

The song has resonated "we're all in this together". To the summer memories with NS; the rides and Luke Bryan. To the DC trip and long night drives with JG. Harry Potter world with ME. To the Pats place and Beach photoshoot with HS. Fat Friday was a blast with JC, NS, and HS. To taking tv2.5 and eating dried cranberries with HS that we got on our privs rides or when we cried our eyes out 2 Me B4 You. To the classes that I struggled with AP Euro with LC (and the bake-offs) and US with ME. SB, BB, XC.

West Bridgewater has treated me very well the eight years that I have lived here. I've met some amazing people (you guys know who you are). I have grown so much as a person in the time I've been here and I can't thank this town enough. After this year we are moving on to the real world and life will take us all on our own journeys. But my journey is different. As everyone leaves their homes, my home is now waiting for me. The journey to get myself back to my home in Western MA. I will always appreciate West Bridgewater, but now is the start of my journey. To finally go home.

High School flies by but you will not believe this until you are in the middle of writing your senior bio. Live life and do not let the little things bother you! Shout out to my BFF since 5th grade Boo Boo aka Emily Beatrice. And IT'S L17. I leave the basketball team to C.W as C.A left it to me. Special thanks to the only person who has been by me since 7th grade, Brookie Cookie. It is time for all of us to move on, grow up, and live our lives.

AOA since eighth grade. Wouldn't have been able to survive without my little ketchup packets. From #Delena to pros and cons lists, ice cream, car rides, pool days, and Aeropostale I love you both so much. C.O and N.S PUNTA CANA if it's not booked by now I really regret putting you in here. The Good Days Crew, Carol, Miki, Tor, love all of you. The best coach in the history of the world, Sylvain, thank you for everything you've done for this team. Good luck to the ladies xc team, I hope for another decade of dominance. My first kiss P.W. Thanks fam, and everyone else who made high school barely tolerable. J.W I've had a crush on you since eighth grade. Adios amigos

"There are far, far better things ahead than any we leave behind"

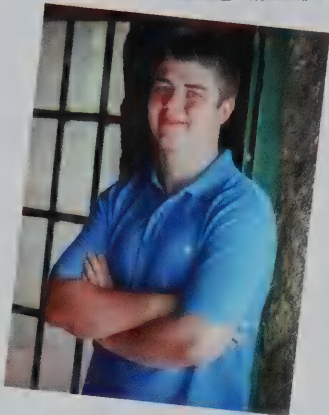

The last four years of high school has been an amazing and wonderful journey. I will always remember the good times and bad times during my years in high school. I will miss the friends I have made, the teachers I've had and it has been a wonderful experience.

I, Nina Petti, leave Maggie Allen the cross country team to lead another successful year and my handicap gym locker. I leave Alison Silva an infinite amount of hugs and fist bumps. I, Elaine Nolan, leave Alli Pratt the rest of my good hair days, not that you'd ever need them. I leave Roy someone else who panics! Kelsey I leave you febreze and a broom. Galbato all the mint chip ice cream at Skinners, and good mornings with Stefanos.

I, Jonathan Fongallaz leave Mr. Despier a new favorite student. I leave Devin Georgantis my #44 jersey. I leave Christian Keeling being the only one yelled at by Antonio. I leave the whole football team good luck surviving practices without me.

A Letter From the Editors

"This is our year", and in our memories, it will always be "our year". This is the year we will look back to when reminiscing and reflecting on the past. It's the year we'll use as an example of how fast time flies because wasn't it just yesterday that we were freshman hiding in the back at our first homecoming dance? Seventh graders trying out the teams we would later captain? Fourth graders starting at a new school? And first graders meeting our best friends, not knowing it would become the beginning of a twelve year friendship? This is the year we might look back and think about the "could haves" and "what ifs" but also the year we'll say "best night of my life" or "best decision I ever made". And this yearbook contains some of the most cherished memories of our class, the Class of 2017. Whether or not we choose to look back at these times and laugh, cry, regret or smile, they're here.

A quick thank you to all the seniors who put time and energy into working on this yearbook. And of course, thank you to Mrs. DeLorenzo and Mrs. DeSimone for all your time, guidance and patience. We could not have done it without you.

Wherever we go next, we are who we are because of where we came from. Don't forget that. Best of luck to everyone.

Sincerely,
The 2017 Yearbook Staff

- A Gift From God -

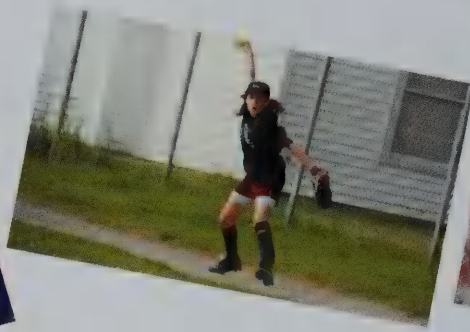

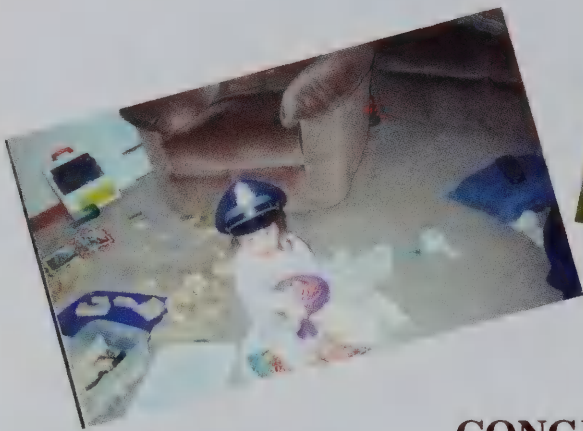

That is what you are! From holding your hand to walking beside you to cheering you on from the sidelines, it has been an incredible journey! So proud of the kind, compassionate, witty, strong but gentle young man you have become.

Excited for what God has planned for you. Continue to keep your eyes fixed on Him!

We love you!

Dad, Mom, Sarah, Jack and William

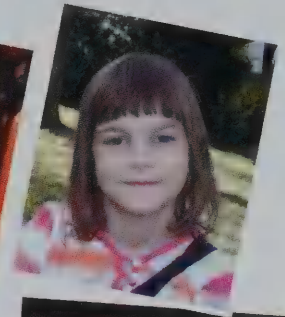

CONGRATULATIONS ASHLEY CONGDON!

It seems like yesterday that we held you in our arms and marveled at the thought of becoming parents. As a parent, you often wonder what your child will grow up to be. There were no directions and we can only hope that we taught you all the right things to become an honest, caring, and loving person. Well Ash, you have exceeded all our wishes and it has been an amazing ride to watch you grow. I know the first chapter of your life is about to close, but we can't wait to experience the next one. We love you so much and thank you for being the best daughter a parent can ask for.

Love,

Mom, Dad & Matt

Congratulations Jessica Rose!!!

Jessica,

You have a heart ready for love, a mind ready for challenge, a spirit ready for flight, and a passion ready to catch fire. You are a woman who has found her voice and will not be silenced. You are a warrior who has faced adversity with courage and grace. You are a human who has suffered, yet you choose to live and love with integrity and dignity.

You are the creator of your life story and the caretaker of your soul. Write a story that YOU would love to read and take good care of your precious soul.

You are gifted with family and friends who will love and support you every step of the way. Lean on that love in the years to come. From the day you were born, you have been the moon that brings light to darkness.

Shine away!

We Love You!

Mom, Kevin, Nana, Charles, Ryan, and Dan

Julia,
You are unique, intelligent, clever and insightful, to name a few words that describe you, however, there are not enough words to tell you how much you are loved and adored. We couldn't be more proud of the young woman you have become and we are excited to see on which path your journey takes you.

Congratulations! It's time to begin writing the next pages of your story.

Congratulations Colin!

We are full of pride as you celebrate the end of a chapter and look forward to the beginning of another. You have a big, bright, successful future in store. As you go forth to pursue your dreams always remember how special you are and how much you are loved. Most importantly, never let a day go by when you do not call your mother!

Love, Mom, Dad, Ben, Chris and Carly

Colleen,

Our family wasn't complete until the day you were born, and even then you were in a rush to join us. You are Mommy's "mini me," Daddy's "scamp," and Katie's constant playmate. You are intelligent, hard-working, and excellent at solving mysteries! We are so proud of all that you have accomplished. I remember taking my "Little Missy" to toddler school - now you are "Miss Daly" to a special group of fifth graders ("your kids.") We know that you will be a successful teacher someday because you genuinely care for your students and are a great role model, plus it's your destiny. Le monde est un livre dont chaque pas nous ouvre une page. Nous t'aimons toujours!

Love, Mama, Daddy & Katie xoxo...

YOUR KINDNESS AND CONCERN FOR OTHERS, HOWEVER, IS ALWAYS VISIBLE. WHETHER CARING FOR VERY SICK CHILDREN IN A HAITIAN ORPHANAGE OR ANSWERING THE SAME QUESTION FROM AN ELDERLY RELATIVE WHILE PERCHING ON THE EDGE OF THE BED DURING A VISIT,

WE ARE SO PROUD OF THE CARING AND THOUGHTFUL YOUNG WOMAN YOU HAVE BECOME. CONTINUE TO WORK HARD, DEVELOP YOUR UNIQUE GIFTS AND TALENTS AND WE KNOW THERE IS A SPECIAL PLACE FOR YOU IN THIS WORLD. WE CAN'T WAIT TO SEE WHAT IT HOLDS IN STORE FOR YOU.

WITH MUCH LOVE,
THE "RENTS" AND BIG SISTER

Nicholas

I still remember the second day of preschool when you came home and said to me... "What do you mean I have to go again? It's not really for me. I'd rather be home with you." And.. so it began. Every excuse to not go. Although it seemed like an endless battle, the time flew faster than I could ever imagine.

Now it's your time to chase your dreams. Always live your life to the fullest- you only get one. You are in charge of your happiness. It's the little moments that mean the most. Have no regrets but remember your responsible for every decision. Never waste time hating anyone. Never forget those who love you and no matter where you are in life you can always come home. What you do when no one is looking will define your character and you only fail when you decide to quit.

I'm proud of you, I love you, TTMAB

Mom, Leighann and Jack

To our Hannah:

We love your kind heart, your silly sense of humor and your positive outlook on life. The time has come to end this chapter of your life. As you enter your new chapter our wish for you is that life becomes all you want it to be. -- "Your dreams stay big, your worries stay small, and you never carry more than you can handle." You have turned out to be a remarkable young woman. We as parents couldn't be prouder.

Love Mom, Dad, and Cole

"Always be yourself, everyone else is taken"

Congratulations (Cr)Ab!
